This is an OMAR Middleton presented in good condition with two bedrooms, one double and a single, a decked patio area, small garden area, outside shed and parking.

Quarry Rock Gardens is located in a much sought after location in a suburb of Bath. The park is set in a beautifully manicured development of detached residential park homes in a relaxing and pleasant community. This park is located approximately 1.5 miles South East of the Bath city centre. The park has great rail and road links into South Wales and surrounding cities on the M4 corridor towards London. Access to the city centre is very easy and there is a bus stop only one hundred meters from the site.
