

Rossendale, Lancashire, BB4

£110,000

This pre-owned (37'x12') Tingdene park home is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy-to-maintain, bungalow-style property. The home has a modern kitchen, comfortable large sunny lounge with an electric fireplace leading to a lovely conservatory, one double bedroom and a bathroom with a walk-in shower. The exterior features a driveway and private garden space.

This park is an established and welcoming residential development in a quiet and peaceful area of Rossendale and offers its residents a relaxing pace of life. This development is in the Victorian village of Acre, where you can find local amenities within walking distance from the park. To the north of the development is the town of Accrington, where you can find the nearest train station and town facilities. Manchester is 20 miles from the park.
