

Whitstable, Kent, CT5

£390,000

This brand new, modern-furnished Tingdene Regency Classic (45'x20') luxury park home is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy to maintain, bungalow style retirement property. The living area features a three-seater sofa and two-seater sofa with a feature wall and stone effect fireplace suite. The kitchen features a vaulted ceiling with a skylight, integrated appliances including a stainless steel gas hob and an electric oven. The dining area features a round table and 4 chairs. The master bedroom features a king size divan bed with headboard, an en-suite and walk-in wardrobe.

This park is located in Whitstable, a highly sought-after resort, famous for its oysters and fishing fleets. Whitstable is a delightful old town with narrow streets, and an attractive harbour area with plenty of shops and restaurants. Historic Canterbury is also within easy reach, an excellent centre for restaurants, shops and the theatre.
